Neven Maguire visits Loreto College

Renowned celebrity chef Neven Maguire paid a visit to Loreto College, Crumlin Road on Wednesday, 11th September to give an eagerly anticipated cooking demonstration to Home Economics and LCVP (Leaving Cert Vocational Programme) students.

The Head Chef and proprietor of the award winning MacNean House and Restaurant put on a brilliant show in Ms. Robinson's kitchen as he prepared a delicious chicken, sweet potato and chickpea curry with rice. He topped it off with a divine strawberries and raspberries trifle.

5th years Rosemary Olar and Lizi Trapaidze helped set Neven up with his ingredients and equipment. They also presented him with a thank you gift on behalf of all the students.

Transition year pupils Kelsey & Shannon Redmond and Kaitlyn McGlue ably assisted the Cavan chef in preparing the delicious meal.

Thanks to Neven for giving up his time on a very busy day for him and to Ms. Kelleher for making the event possible. You can see more photos on our website.

Ember Team Training

For the last number of years, groups of 5th years have taken up the responsible roles of leading faith development in our school. With the guidance of our chaplain, they organise ceremonies and undertake initiatives that enrich the spiritual side of our school lives.

This year, Kitti Gemes, Holly Gorman, Alannah Grogan, Megan King, Chardonnay Maguire, Kayla McDonnell, Princess Omozusi, Abbie O'Hara, Emily O'Neill and Chloe Pingol were chosen by Ms. Killeen following an interview process in Transition year. They went away this week for three days of intense training in Ovoca Manor. They were kept unbelievably busy from morning to night while they were away. We'll find out more on what they got up to next week

Lá Gorm

To get into the spirit for the two All-Ireland Football finals this weekend involving the Dubs, we held a Lá Gorm (Blue Day) in Loreto College. Students were invited to wear something blue for €2 each. It was all to do our part to get behind the Dublin Ladies in their final against Galway on Sunday and the lads in their replay against the Kingdom on Saturday night.

Five pairs of tickets for the ladies final were won by Jade Kinsella in 6th Year, Aaliyah Quigley & Katie Doyle in 1st Year and Ella McCarthy and Georgia Butler in 2nd Year. A huge Go raibh mile maith agaibh to all of you who got into the spirit of the day. We raised €534.00 for new equipment for our school.
